ECMWF research progress and plans

Tuesday, 7 June 2022 15:05 (25 minutes)

ECMWF carries out a wide-ranging research programme, and this presentation will describe some of the key current foci. Ultimately the goal of the research is to lead to better forecasts, and the talk will include a brief recap of the two operational upgrades introduced over the last year, and a description of the plans for new cycles to exploit the new HPC in Bologna.
